

Catharina Steel – Media Kit

Short bio: A resident of Western Australia and lives in the South West, Catharina Steel is a first-time novelist.

Medium bio: ‘Tilly’s Adventures in Cheyanne Forest’ is Catharina Steel’s first book. It is a children’s book involving Tilly and her cousin’s, Jess and Zach. Catharina is a resident of Western Australia and lives in the South West with her dog, Macherie. Having taken an early retirement her days are now filled with the sound of a tapping keyboard as she seeks success as an author.

Long bio: After a career in accountancy Catharina Steel took an early retirement to concentrate on her passion for writing. Based in Western Australia, Catharina has developed the world of Tilly and her adventures. The first is ‘Tilly’s Adventures in Cheyanne Forest.’ The story follows the search for Cheyanne, who the Forest is named after, as Tilly and her friends avoid the clutches of the Evil Witch and other terrors.

Catharina has had animals all her life; her current dog is Macherie. Three years old and the boss of the house. In her spare time Catharina enjoys 3D modelling and designing house layouts.

The book is being published by 3P Publishing, a British company, and was published in April 2021. Book two, ‘Tilly and the Hidden Elves’ will be published in summer 2021.

Catharina can be found on Facebook at www.facebook.com/CatharinaSteel.Author/

And on Instagram at https://www.instagram.com/catharina_steel/

And at 3P publishing at Catharina Steel | 3PPublishing

