

Catharina Steel – Media Kit

Short bio: A resident of Western Australia and lives in the South West, Catharina Steel is a novelist.

Medium bio: 'Bound Magic is a rewrite of Catharina Steel's first book, Tilly's Adventures in Cheyanne Forest. It is a upper middle grade book involving Tilly and her cousin's, Jess and Zach. Catharina is a resident of Western Australia and lives in the South West with her greyhound, Macherie. She enjoys working on her novels and creating fun reels for her social media pages..

Long bio: After a career in accountancy Catharina Steel decided to concentrate on her passion for writing. Based in Western Australia, Catharina has developed the world of Clayton, Wythic Wood, and the Hidden Forest. The story follows the search for Michael and Clayton, who a Forest is named after, as Tilly and her friends avoid the clutches of the Witch of Wythic Wood and other terrors.

Catharina has had animals all her life; her current greyhound is Macherie. Five years old and the boss of the house. In her spare time Catharina enjoys viewing properties, walking, reading, and watching various TV series.

Bound Magic is yet to be published as Catharina is working on the final stages in preparation of publishing.

Catharina can be found on Facebook at www.facebook.com/CatharinaSteel.Author/

And on Instagram at https://www.instagram.com/catharina_steel/